Lesson

Draft an imaginative transformation

Last lesson, you planned your imaginative transformation in the form of a short story. In this lesson, you will draft your short story.

1. Open and read your copy of Sheet 8 — Plan an imaginative transformation. Consider if you need to make any changes or additions to your plan.

Note

You are about to start drafting your short story. Remember to use some of the following features:

adverb, contrast, dialogue, direct speech, evaluative language, evaluative meaning, extended metaphor, foreshadowing, figurative language, hyperbole, imagery, in media res, inner monologue, irony, juxtaposition, language features, metaphor, noun, noun group, rhetorical devices, simile, text structure, tone, understatement, verbs, verb group

Check Sheet 1 — English glossary Year 9 for definitions.

2. Open and complete Sheet 9 — Draft an imaginative transformation.

Remember, at this stage, your draft does not have to be perfect. You will get a chance to review, edit and refine your draft next fortnight.
