

CURRICULUM VITÆ

Associate Professor (A/Prof) KEITH WILLIAM JAMES ADAM, M.B., B.S., F.A.F.O.E.M.

Qualifications:

M.B., B.S., University of Queensland 1975

Fellow of the Australian College of Occupational Medicine 1986.

Fellow, Australasian Faculty of Occupational and Environmental Medicine, Royal Australasian College of Physicians 1994.

Certified Independent Medical Examiner, American Board of Independent Medical Examiners 2000

Registered by the Medical Board of Queensland as a Specialist in Occupational Medicine 1990.

Current Position:

Currently senior occupational physician and Chief of Professional Services, HSA Group. Formerly Partner and Director, Health for Industry, which was purchased by HSA in October 2003. Dr Adam established the business in August 1984 to provide a comprehensive occupational health service to industry in Brisbane.

Through treating and rehabilitating injured workers at his clinics since 1984, Dr Adam has extensive experience in determining what duties injured workers may be able to perform, and managing return to work programmes.

Dr Adam is retained on a consultant basis by Anglo Coal, and Curragh Qld Mining. He was appointed Chief Medical Adviser for Queensland Rail in October 1997, and of Pacific National in 2005. A client base of over 500 companies throughout Queensland utilises all or some of the available services.

Past Work Experience:

Feb 1983: Returned to Brisbane to establish Occupational Health Practice.

Oct 1979: Joined Mile End Industrial Injury Clinic, South Australia.

1979: General Practice - Locum

1976-1978: Hospital residency, Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Adelaide South Australia.

Further Study:

June 1986 completed intensive course in Occupational Medicine- National Occupational Health and Safety Commission University of Sydney.

November 1995 completed National Short Course in Environmental Health, Adelaide University

2000 completed course in use of American Medical Association Guides to the Assessment of Permanent Impairment conducted by American Board of Independent Medical Examiners

Other Professional Associations:

Regional Censor, Australasian Faculty of Occupational Medicine 1988-2005

Director of Training, Queensland, Australasian Faculty of Occupational Medicine 2008-2010

Chartered Professional Member, Safety Institute of Australia

Member, Australian & New Zealand Society of Occupational Medicine

Other Appointments:

Adjunct Associate Professor, Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Queensland 2009-2012

Expert Member, Workplace Health and Safety Board, established by the Minister for Employment and Industrial Relations under the legislation, 1997-2001.

University of Queensland - part time lecturer in Occupational Medicine -
Faculty of Engineering. 1983 - 1992
Faculty of Medicine 1983 – 1985; 1998 - 2007.

Queensland University of Technology - part time lecturer in Occupational Medicine
Bachelor of Occupational Health and Safety
Post Graduate Diploma in Occupational Health and Safety

Bond University – part time lecturer, Bachelor of Medicine and Surgery

Member, Chemical Risks Management Reference Group established by Workplace Health and Safety Council. 1995 -1997

Member, Health and Community Services Industry Sector Health and Safety Committee established under the Workplace Health and Safety Act 1989. 2008 - current.

Member, General Medical Assessment Tribunal, Q-Comp 2003 - 2006

Deputy Chairman, General Medical Assessment Tribunal, Q-Comp 2006 - present

Medical adviser Queensland Fire and Rescue Service 1985 – 2009

Chief Medical Adviser, Queensland Rail 1997 – current.

Chief Medical Adviser, Pacific National (now Asciano) 2005 - current

Awards

May 2006 Certificate of Outstanding Service, Australasian Faculty of Occupational Medicine, RACP.

Research

Chief Partner Investigator, "Does Self Management Increase The Effectiveness Of Vocational Rehabilitation For Chronic Compensated Disorders?" ARC Linkage Grant LP0989499

Dr Adam has also been an external supervisor for 3 PhD students in Occupational Health and Safety, QUT