

clever • skilled • creative

creative generation

State Schools Onstage 2008

Tickets On Sale Now!

Don't miss the chance to see Queensland's most talented state school performers alongside some of Australia's leading professional artists.

Acclaimed by audiences as the most heart-warming performance of the year, Creative Generation – State Schools Onstage 2008 will incorporate more than 550 talented Queensland state school performers in an exciting stage show spectacular featuring a 70-piece orchestra, 220 dancers, a 220-voice choir and talented featured artists. The show will mark the end of State Education Week 2008.

Each school group purchase to the matinee will also include one free ticket for the accompanying teacher!

Tickets: $14.00 children, $20.00 concession and $28.00 adults (plus booking fee).

Queensland Performing Arts Centre, Concert Hall
Fri 30 May, 11.30 am and 7 pm
Sat 31 May, 7 pm

Tickets are available through Qtix, phone 136 246 or visit www.qtix.com.au

Book in advance to avoid disappointment.

Supported by

QPAC

Queensland Government
Department of Education, Training and the Arts

State Schools Shaping the Smart State