

Rats of Tobruk Stand Up

We are currently studying WW2. The principle of art we used was rhythm. Australian troops were sent to Suez Canal to defend it against the Germans that are trying to take over it.

The Rats of Tobruk got their name from Berlin radio. They called us rats thinking that we would take offence to this but we were proud of this and that is how we got our name. The Australians stood their ground and stayed put.

NG learning group, 2005
Yarrilee State School
Hervey Bay Q.
Cardboard Cut-outs
122cm x 63cm