

Every day counts at school

Is your child at school today?

Children do better when they go to school all day, every day. Tell the school if your child is sick or can't go to school.