

Functional Job Requirements For the Position of General High School Teacher Department of Education and Training

This document was developed for the following purposes: assisting in the development of rehabilitation programs for injured or ill employees and to provide detailed information about job demands to medical practitioners and allied health professionals undertaking medical reviews of Departmental employees.

This report identifies those activities which are essential to successful performance in this role. In determining whether a work activity is a “critical activity” the following questions are considered;

1. Does the worker spend greater than 33% of designated work time performing this activity? and / or,
2. Is specialized training/experience required to complete this activity? Has this been completed by only a small proportion of staff in this geographical region? and/or,
3. Is this activity performed in an environment where no other workers are readily available to assist with its completion? and/or,
4. Does this activity occur without prior notice and require immediate attention leaving no time to seek assistance to complete it? and/or,
5. Is this activity core to the development of stakeholder relationships, which are essential to achieving successful outcomes? and/or
6. Would an inability to perform this activity result in an increased health and safety risk to co-workers, students and/or members of the public?

The development process included; site observation of work environments, staff interviews, staff feedback on draft documents and consideration of benchmark publications for the analysis and description of work activities and job demands specific to particular positions (the Revised Handbook for Analysing Jobs, the Occupational Information Network and the Australian Job Guide, 2006).

This report indicates the average time spent across a working week on each work activity and also on each physical demand of work. In order to make this information meaningful to the various users of this report, in some instances the time spent is expressed as a single word, as a percentage of total time or as an actual amount of time (i.e. hours and minutes). The timeframes used are based on the benchmark descriptions (from the publications above) for expressing frequency of performance of work tasks.

Description of the General High School Teacher:

It is the role of a General High School Teacher to teach a class of up to 28 students in years eight to twelve. Junior classes (years eight to ten) will have up to 28 students per class and senior classes (years eleven and twelve) will have up to 25. Students in high schools will generally be aged 13 years and above. General High School Teachers are responsible for all aspects of the planning, preparation and delivery of effective learning and teaching programs across a range of subjects. General High School Teachers tend to not specialise in one specific area i.e. Science, Maths etc, but teach a broad range of subjects that can vary each semester or year. General High School Teachers predominantly teach junior classes (years eight to ten) to allow teachers with specialised skill sets to teach students in senior classes. The curriculum is spread across four terms per school year and is determined prior to the start of the new school year. The average time spent by General High School Teachers in classes will be 20 hours per week (for example 17 classes of 70 minute duration).

Activity Frequencies:

The Activity Frequencies below have been calculated based on a week of 5 days comprising 5 contact hours per day, as per page one of this report.

Critical Job Demand:

Job activities have been listed as critical only where they meet criteria for critical job demands, as outlined on page one of this report.

	Job Activity	Average Time	Critical Job Demand
1	Room / Activity set-up Staff are required to set up their classroom prior to each lesson. This is particularly necessary when staff are conducting a practical demonstration or if students are participating in practical work. Depending on the subject being taught, this may require moving desks, chairs, OHT's, computers and various equipment and materials. The teacher aide and/or students may assist with this process.	Occasional: Up to 3 hours per week (e.g. 5 minutes per class)	No
2	Teaching of Students General High School Teachers are responsible for teaching a variety of different subjects across a wide range of high school curriculum. General teachers do not tend to specialise in one specific area and instead are contracted to teach in any subject as pre-determined at the commencement of the school year and/or term by heads of department and the school principal. These subjects may consist of, but are not limited to, maths, english, science, business and many others. It is noted that although General High School Teachers are generally responsible for teaching a range of different subjects, they can often be given classes in one subject area due to their experience level. E.g. A teacher may be responsible for all business classes (accounting, computer studies, business etc) due to their experience in teaching this area. Depending on the class and subject being taught, the lesson may be taught in a classroom environment encompassing theoretical material, or it could be taught in a practical format in a laboratory, outside in a playground or in a computer room. Teaching may involve standing or seated presentation of information to students, monitoring verbal and non-verbal responses of students to information, providing answers to questions, supervision of group and individual learning activities and encouraging participation by students.	Constant Up to 25 hours per week  (e.g. 1-2 hours per week)	Yes
3	Parent Liaison Teachers may contact the parents of their students via telephone as required to discuss specific issues (e.g. student performance). General High School Teachers participate in teacher parent interview nights approximately three times per year and staff may also be involved in subject information nights providing additional information as needed to both students and parents.	Rare: Up to one hour per week	Yes

Risk Based Physical Environmental Considerations:

- There may be clutter in the work/storage area, increasing the risk of trip hazards, awkward bending and lifting, and poor storage practices
- Items, furniture and fixtures may have limited adjustability features requiring the adoption of awkward postures
- There may be limited space for movement during performance of some activities
- There may be constant low-level ambient noise (from students and potentially traffic)
- There may be limited classroom lighting and ventilation in some facilities
- Some work may be performed outdoors or in an area exposed to the elements (e.g. experiments on school ovals or on excursions)
- Terrain during community outings is variable e.g. parks, shopping centres
- Work may be performed in temperatures above 24 degrees (occasionally in summer)
- Work areas may be slippery or wet
- There may be exposure to chemicals

Psychosocial Risks to be Considered	Social / Interpersonal Demands
Time pressure/high workload- while deadlines exist for many tasks, the level of demand is dependent upon school environment and staffing level. The teachers workload can be high due to multiple demands and a large number of unplanned interruptions occurring throughout the day.	Performing for or Working Directly with the Public – parents and students	Coordinating or Leading Others - students
Responsible for others' health and safety: provide appropriate instruction and supervision of students when using equipment / materials and ensure appropriate PPE is worn and safety procedures are followed along with regular first aid treatment for major or minor accidents/injuries	Communicating with Persons Outside the Organisation - parents and community members	Coaching and Developing Others - aides and students
Environmental Stress– constant low level ambient noise from students, PA announcements, school bells etc requiring considerable projection of voice to be heard. Some temperature variation during winter and summer, constant environmental monitoring of student location during outdoor experiments.	Establishing and Maintaining Interpersonal Relationships - with students, staff and parents	Coordinating the Work of Others - aides and students
Insufficient work breaks- shortened breaks may be taken on a voluntary basis due to high workload and time constraints. Breaks may be limited by meal and playground supervision duties, particularly if there is insufficient planning e.g. unplanned wet weather duties.	Resolving Conflicts - between students and Negotiating with Others - students/parents/ staff	Interpreting the Meaning of Information for Others - students
Investigations - participate in reporting, investigation and resolution processes, including mandatory reporting of suspected child abuse or neglect and participation as a witness or party to performance, discipline, grievance, WorkCover or other processes.	Communicating with Supervisors, Peers, or Subordinates	Dealing With Unpleasant or Angry People - parents (potentially)
Policies - comply with departmental policies, procedures, guidelines and the code of conduct, including undertaking risk management processes to ensure the health and safety of students and others under their supervision or direction.	Guiding, Directing, and Motivating - students	Dealing With Physically Aggressive People - students and parents
	Training and Teaching - students	Assisting and Caring for Others - students (may include first aid)

Considerations for Assessment of Physical Job Fitness:

- Assessment of sustained standing capacity of 30 minutes including sufficient flexibility to allow adoption of awkward postures when working with students
- Ability to sustain constant dynamic standing throughout the day with minimal sitting breaks
- Capacity for grip patterns required for repetitive handling of various equipment.
- Assessment of fine motor dexterity or actual keyboard operation for typing activities (for non contact duties)
- Ability to lift and carry heavy and/or awkward loads with no assistance (up to 20kg)
- Symmetry, range and discomfort with movements of the spinal and peripheral joints, including hips, knees, ankles, shoulders and wrists
- Able to ascend and descend 2 x flights of stairs
- Sufficient visual and auditory function to enable interaction and response to students

Other Considerations

- History of neck/shoulder discomfort associated with static and sustained repetitive neck flexion postures
- History of upper limb, lower limb or spinal pain with repetitious or static tasks
- History of lower back pain with sustained sitting or standing
- Knowledge of individual allergies and ability to work with a wide range chemicals
- Knowledge of ergonomic principles for clerical workstations and knowledge of / ability to learn safe crouching/stooping posture (with flexion occurring at the hips rather than in the lumbar spine)
- Knowledge of correct manual handling techniques i.e. ability to bend at hips, bend knees and squat with a neutral spine
- Knowledge of vocal health and techniques to enable safe projection of voice
