

Department of Education, Training and the Arts

What we do

The Department of Education, Training and the Arts engages Queenslanders in life-long education and training and builds a strong arts and cultural sector to enrich the lives of Queenslanders.

Your career with the Department of Education, Training and the Arts

Our dedicated teachers, diverse schools and TAFE Institutes are key to delivering education and training services to Queensland and have a vital role in delivering the Smart State agenda.

School teaching career opportunities are mainly in:

- special education
- senior maths
- senior science
- languages
- industrial technology (manual arts and graphics)
- secondary teaching

To find out more, visit Employing Quality Teachers at www.education.qld.gov.au/hr/recruitment/teaching

TAFE teaching roles encompass a broad range of trades, commercial and community areas of expertise. We recruit tradespeople from a range of trades with focus on:

- electrical
- plumbing
- carpentry
- automotive
- metal fabrication
- diesel fitting
- instrumentation
- refrigeration mechanical
- fitting and machining
- heavy commercial vehicle

Make a difference. Teach.

Queensland Government

Department of Education, Training and the Arts

the smart career choice

Learning. Skilling. Creating.

We also offer a range of professional and other specialist careers, such as accountants, auditors, cleaners, engineers, IT experts, graphic designers, human resources consultants, lawyers, managers, nurses, principals, policy analysts, psychologists, scientific assistants, statisticians, teacher aides and therapists - just to name a few.

Why join us?

We are Queensland Government's largest employer, with more than 70,000 employees with varied backgrounds, work experiences, education, beliefs and perspectives. The diversity of our employees is one of our greatest strengths.

“Make a difference to the lives of Queenslanders through education and training, or by working to support Queensland's arts and cultural sector.”

The department offers:

- competitive salary levels, superannuation schemes and leave benefits
- work/life balance
- professional development programs for teaching and non-teaching staff at all stages in their careers
- incentives for employment in rural and regional areas

More information

Interested?

You can find the current vacancies with the Department of Education, Training and the Arts on Smart jobs and careers on www.jobs.qld.gov.au.

You can download the position description and application pack for each role which contains all documents and information you need to apply for the position.

If you are looking for more information about the Department of Education, Training and the Arts, visit www.deta.qld.gov.au, www.education.qld.gov.au/hr/recruitment/, or www.trainandemploy.qld.gov.au/client/about\_us/jobs/index.html

www.jobs.qld.gov.au