

Working Together

November 2010

Queensland Schools Alliance
Against Violence Resources

QSAAV Resources
Queensland Schools Declaration Against Bullying and Violence	→ Queensland Schools Declaration Against Bullying and Violence was signed by all QSAAV members as a public statement of commitment to preventing bullying and violence
Action Against Bullying Education Series Dr Michael Carr-Gregg	→ The vodcasts of the Action Against Bullying Education Series are available online, through a registration process, until April 2011, on the Learning Place
Working Together suite of resources	→ Working Together: A toolkit for effective school based action against bullying provides school staff with practical strategies and resources to address the complex issue of student-on-student bullying
	Working Together: A toolkit for parents to address bullying provides parents with information on supporting their own child and working with their child's school to address bullying
	Working Together: A starter kit for developing local community alliances against bullying and violence provides schools with information and resources to engage with the wider community to establish local community alliances
	Working Together: Good practice in Queensland schools – Case studies of effective school based action against bullying provides examples of good local practice in Queensland state, independent and Catholic schools
	Working Together: Understanding student violence in schools provides information to assist schools to understand the complexity of violence as well as the latest thinking about best practice in managing violence between students in schools
Video clips for Parents Dr Michael Carr-Gregg	→ A series of short clips Six Quick Tips for Parents about Bullying is available on YouTube
Student Consultation Report – Students' views about bullying	→ The Student Consultation Report – Students' views about bullying reports on the consultation conducted by the Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian on behalf of QSAAV with Queensland school students about elements of the schools toolkit as well as how students want to be involved in developing and implementing a school anti-bullying policy. Templates for schools for student consultation Focus group questions Focus group discussion guide Discussion group consent form Information sheet for parents and students Evaluation form
QSAAV Report October 2010	→ The Queensland Schools Alliance Against Violence Report October 2010 summarises the work of QSAAV and makes eight recommendations to the Minister for Education and Training to continue the government's work to address bullying and violence

www.education.qld.gov.au/studentservices/behaviour/qaav/index.html

Queensland Government