

The updated K-12 Curriculum, assessment and reporting framework for use from 2025

The K-12 Curriculum, assessment and reporting framework (K–12 Framework) sets out the requirements for all Queensland state schools. The following table provides a summary of updates to the K–12 Framework for use from 2025.

Change	Category of change	Summary of change
New navigation page with interactive features: home and toggle buttons.	New	To support electronic navigation through the document, and toggle between versions of supporting attachments (V8.4 or V9).
Merging of two versions of P-12 Frameworks	Update	Merging two versions of Minimum requirements and Assessment supporting attachments – with ability for users to toggle between V8.4 and V9 requirements until 2027.
Inclusion of K	New	Inclusion of requirements and supporting attachment for State Delivered Kindergarten, Hospital Kindy and eKindy.
Word level updates throughout	Update	Word level updates made for clarity and currency, informed by feedback from schools, regions and central office teams.
Music for 30 minutes every week in Prep to Year 6	Update	Information about providing Music as an individual subject for 30 minutes per week in P-6 in schools that have a specialist music teacher.
Additional endnotes	Update	To support understanding of specific terms and phrases. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Clarify the term 'monitor' Clarify when 30 minutes of Music every week is appropriate Clarify information about comment and non-comment reports
Greater consistency in academic reporting	Update	Consistency in effort/behaviour/comment/non-comment reports across P-6.

