

Westminster Prize

The Department of Education International is proud to deliver the Westminster Prize – an esteemed award that recognises the commitment of Queensland students to civics, citizenship and democratic participation.

Students from all regions and educational sectors in Queensland demonstrating strong civic awareness, engagement and leadership potential will have the opportunity to participate in a unique, immersive learning experience across Brisbane, Canberra and the United Kingdom.

This Prize recognises commitment to active citizenship and fosters a deeper understanding of democratic values, empowering students to become informed, engaged and active citizens.
