

Global Learning Program

Expression of Interest Form - International

Opportunity Overview

The Global Learning Program (GLP) enables international teachers to collaborate with a Queensland partner teacher over a 10-week period. Through this program, teachers work together to design learning experiences that foster global competence among their students with reference to a Sustainable Development Goal (SDG). Participants will engage in online sessions to develop and implement projects focused on cultural exchange and global issues.

Program Details

GLP is open to international teachers who:

- are interested in fostering global competence in their students;
- are prepared to engage in online collaboration with a Queensland partner teacher (dates and time commitment to be decided and agreed upon by partnered teachers); and,
- are prepared to attend 2 x 1.5-hour Global Competence online training sessions and 2 x 45-minute online program sessions facilitated by Global Engagement.
