Osaka Global Teacher Program

The Osaka Global Teacher Program, delivered by Global Engagement, within the Department of Education International, offers Queensland teachers of Japanese language a unique opportunity to participate in an immersive professional development experience at the Japan Foundation Japanese-Language Institute, Kansai. This 3-week program, conducted entirely in Japanese, requires participants to have an upper-beginner to intermediate level of Japanese language proficiency (equivalent to Japanese Language Proficiency Test N4 or above).

Participants will attend lessons at the Japan Foundation Japanese-Language Institute, Kansai, observe classes at primary and secondary schools, deliver presentations to Japanese school students, obtain authentic teaching resources, and visit Japanese homes and places of cultural significance in the Osaka prefecture.

Through this program, participants enhance their Japanese language teaching capabilities, deepen their understanding of Japanese culture and help strengthen educational ties between Queensland and Japan, fostering cross-cultural connections that enrich both communities.
