Schools: Queensland Future School Leaders Program – Expression of Interest Form

Queensland Future School Leaders Program

Expression of Interest Form

Opportunity overview

The Queensland Future School Leaders Program offers Year 5 students a unique opportunity to develop essential leadership, communication and teamwork skills.

Aligned with the Civics and Citizenship curriculum and completed during class time in Term 4, this facilitated program enables participants to collaborate online with peers from across the Asia-Pacific region. Together, participants will navigate and positively respond to the challenges experienced by our rapidly changing and diverse societies.

Through this program, participants not only enhance their self-awareness, analytical, creative-thinking and leadership abilities; they also develop the global competence and intercultural understanding needed to form meaningful relationships in an increasingly interconnected world.

Eligibility requirements for schools

- Be a Queensland state primary school.
- Be able to nominate between four to six Year 5 students to participate in the program who:
  - are Australian citizens, permanent residents of Australia or New Zealand citizens residing in Australia;
  - are full-time students at the school; and,
  - demonstrate strong leadership qualities and would benefit from working collaboratively with international peers.
- Ensure all participating students have access to a stable internet connection, PC, laptop or tablet, headset or headphones (with microphone) and a webcam.
- Provide classroom-based teacher support for participating students at each online session.
- Be available to participate in three-hour sessions over four program days during Term 4, 2025.
- Have Principal endorsement to submit an Expression of Interest.
- Submit an Expression of Interest by 5:00 pm on the closing date.
