

You care, we care

Young carers are important!

Students sometimes care for or help to care for a family member or a friend... does this sound like you or someone you know?

We want you to know that help is available.

Talk to your teachers or guidance officer about how to access advice and support to help you succeed in your education, while you care for your loved one.

