Conditions of entry and program rules

Who can enter

- The applicant must be a registered teacher in a Queensland state school and must maintain that registration for the duration of the program.
- The applicant must be an Australian citizen, a permanent resident of Australia, or a New Zealand citizen residing in Australia.
- Applications must be from individuals and not groups.
- The applicant must be permanently employed at time of application and will continue to be at time of program delivery.

How to apply

Applications must be received by by 5:00pm on the closing date of your preferred program (see Program selection on page 2 of this form). All applicants will be advised by email in regards to successful and unsuccessful submissions. Late applications will not be accepted.

Entry Process

Applicants must submit the following:

- An electronic copy of the completed and signed Chaperone Application Form [Part A]; and
- An electronic copy of the completed and signed Project Consent Form [Part B]

Entries that do not include all the above components will not be considered. Email the signed documents to global.engagement@qed.qld.gov.au

Selection criteria and process

The selection panel may select chaperones based on the Department of Education's strategic priorities. This may include distributing opportunities for overseas travel evenly throughout the Department's service delivery regions. The selection panel may select chaperones with consideration to the number of professional programs undertaken by the applicant in the previous three years.

The panel's decision is final and individual feedback to applicants will not be available.

Program expenses

The Department will cover the chaperones' program expenses including airfares (international and domestic), visa, airport taxes, travel insurance, accommodation and most meals.

Chaperones' personal expenses including excess baggage, passport, vaccinations and any excess payable for claims made against the travel insurance policy must be covered by the chaperones.

Other conditions

- The Chaperone Application Form [Part A], Project Consent Form [Part B], and Chaperone Conditions of Entry and Program Rules all form part of the Chaperone Application Pack.
- Successful applicants may feature in media and promotional activities - see Project Consent Form [Part B] which must be completed, signed and submitted at the time of applying. Applicants may revoke their consent at any time, as per the provisions of the Project Consent Form.
- Applicants may apply for multiple programs however, can only be approved to travel once per calendar year. The program cannot be exchanged and is not redeemable for cash.
- At the Department's discretion, the program is subject to change or cancellation.
- Successful applicants must have a passport with a minimum validity of six months after the anticipated return date of the program.
- No responsibility will be taken for incomplete, late, misdirected, damaged or lost applications.
- The Department reserves the right, at any time, to verify the validity of an entry or disqualify an application that is not in accordance with these conditions.
- The program is not for the purposes of:
 - › personal tourism by the applicant prior to, in the middle of, or at the end of the program; or
 - › visiting family and friends in the country they are traveling.

Program rules for successful chaperones

If you are selected as a successful applicant for this program, you will be required to undertake the following:

Before the program I agree to:

Obtain a passport with a minimum validity of six months after the anticipated returned date of the program and ensure there is no restriction on travelling to the destination.

Pay for all incidentals that may arise in connection with the program (including but not limited to - excess baggage fee, spending money, personal mobile phone charges, and personal purchases).

Supply a completed Chaperone Medical Information and Authorisation Form when requested.

Provide a 'Fitness to Travel' Medical certificate from my General Practitioner which will need to state:

› 'Participant name and date of birth' is in good physical and mental health, and fit for international travel. I have listed below any medication being taken by the participant.

OR - if you have a pre-existing medical condition

› 'Participant name and date of birth' is in good physical and mental health, and fit for international travel and I do not foresee why they should require any medical treatment for their pre-existing medical condition whilst overseas. I have listed below any medication being taken by the participant.

In accordance with the terms of cover under the Group Medical Conditions (group policies) listed by the GoSafe Travel Insurance, inform the organisers if my health changes such that I am not medically fit to travel.

Confirm receipt of visa (if required) at least four weeks prior to the confirmed departure date.

Promptly advise the Department of any changes to information supplied on the Chaperone Application Form [Part A] and any issues which may affect participation in the program (for example, a change to health, family situation, financial circumstances, school, or a need for any special requirements or assistance on the program).

Comply with all reasonable requests by the Department for any additional information or documentation.

Participate in all pre-program briefings.

Be available to undertake pre-departure and post-arrival chaperoning duties

Assist in developing the detailed itinerary if required.

Run web conferences with participants (including the pre-departure cultural, safety and travel briefings).

Have my selection in the program revoked if:

- › I do not comply with the Conditions of Entry and Program Rules
- › I do not provide a "Fitness to Travel" Medical Certificate. In accordance with the terms of cover under the Group Medical Conditions (group policies) listed by the GoSafe Travel Insurance
- › I do not have, and maintain behaviour that is satisfactory to the Department
- › I am unable to obtain the necessary passport/visa
- › I resign, or my employment at a Queensland state school is terminated
- › The Department is unable to obtain an appropriate level of travel insurance coverage for me ('appropriate' will be determined by the Department in its absolute discretion).

The Department is not responsible for any loss or damage to persons or property if my selection for the program is revoked.

During the program I agree to:

Abide by the International School Study Tours Supervising teacher agreement and follow the Code of conduct for the Queensland public service, and the DoE Standard of Practice which applies to supervising teachers while on the tour.

Maintain a safe and respectful learning environment for all students participating on the program.

Comply with all laws of the host country and represent the Department as an ambassador for Queensland demonstrating maturity, leadership and a willingness to learn at all times.

Accept that the Department is not responsible for any loss or damage if I am sent home in accordance with these rules.

After the program I agree to:

Record my reflections of the program in my post-program report.

Make presentations about the program to my school community if requested.

Participate in all post-program briefings and complete a survey about the program.

Provide all travel-related receipts to complete the international travel report and other expenses claims in accordance with the Official international travel for business and professional development procedure.

Please note; that these rules may be updated if the need for additional or varied rules arises. If you are notified of any updates to the rules, you must follow the revised program rules. The Department is not responsible for any loss or damage if these program rules are broken.

Role of the chaperone

- Where two or more chaperones are required, there will be one lead chaperone and one general chaperone appointed.
- General Chaperone - duties may include: pre-program activities; preparing program documentation; student and parent liaison; student welfare; information technology tasks; post-program activities. The General Chaperone will be overseen by the Lead Chaperone.
- Lead Chaperone – duties as per the General Chaperone, with additional responsibilities including: travel advance management; financial acquittal; lead liaison with international partners and departments; media-related requests; risk-management during the program. The Lead Chaperone will have previous experience in leading student tour.

Chaperones will:

- Be courteous to and respectful of supervising staff, other chaperones, student participants, program guides, transport and accommodation providers and all other persons involved in the program.
 - Be considerate of the general public at all times and respect local customs and values.
 - Maintain positive, professional relationships with supervising staff and chaperones participating in the program and should follow all lawful directions of the lead chaperone and be punctual at all times.
 - Encourage student participation in all activities.
 - Note the departure of students from the group and their return and conduct regular roll calls.
 - Attend all arranged meetings and meals of the program (e.g. each morning, to receive information and instructions regarding the day's activities).
 - Adhere to the laws and lawful directions of local authorities, such as police and military, at all times in the country/ies visited during the program.
 - Abide by the the International School Study Tours Supervising Teacher Agreement.
 - Not engage in behaviour that a reasonable person would consider inappropriate and provide a model of good behaviour for the students to follow.
- Note: that it may not be appropriate to use digital devices at specific times such as at monuments of cultural significance or in places of religious significance. In cultures where covering is part of the culture, the taking of photos without permission is considered highly insulting. Close up photos of any individuals or small groups must only be taken with the express permission of the subjects in the photo.

Chaperones duties:

- Dedicate personal time and participate in the pre and post departure briefs to coordinate various components of the program. Duties will include: assisting in developing the detailed itinerary, running web conferences with participants (including the pre-departure cultural, safety and travel briefings), developing and maintaining relationships with the selected students, undertaking any necessary training, and demonstrating the necessary information technology skills to fulfil the duties as a chaperone.
- Assist in the shortlisting process of the student applications.
- Be available for onsite pre-departure and post-arrival chaperone duties on the dates advertised for the program as required.
- Undertake various chaperone's tasks, including: taking group photos, communicating with students and parents, preparing presentations, running group activities etc.
- The health, safety, well-being, and security of the students participating in the program for the full duration of the program, at all times.
- Support students at all times, and refrain from unnecessary physical contact with the students.
- Act in the best interests of the students at all times.
- Obtain and consent to medical treatment for students (in the event this is required).
- Administer first aid or medication to a student or assist a student to administer their medication.
- Consider the varying maturity and ability levels of students during all program activities.
- Ensure the students under their supervision understand the standards of conduct expected of them for the duration of the program.
- Apply the agreed (as agreed by the chaperones) disciplinary consequences to students who breach the Queensland Code of School Behaviour. Such consequences should be administered fairly and consistently.

Airport

- Take responsibility for the safe keeping of personal passports, visas and other travel documentation whilst in transit in a passport wallet/lanyard (supplied by the Department) which is to be worn around participants necks.
- Keep a photo-copy of all student's passport information in a location separate to their own passport. Destroy passport information on return to Queensland. Lost documents must immediately be reported to the DEi Project Officer.
- Ensure that students do not leave the program group unless accompanied by two or more members of the program, or with a chaperone. Track departures of students in the group and ensure all students are accounted for when boarding or leaving.
- Ensure that the group is ready in a timely fashion and have appropriate documentation to board all flights.
- Remind students to wear their supplied lanyard and name tags.

Buses/cars/boats/planes/bicycles

- Ensure that all students' board buses / boats / planes at the appropriate times and all students' wear seatbelts, life jackets (if directed to) and safety helmets when/if provided and behave appropriately whilst travelling.

Touring

- Avoid taking students of the opposite gender to the restroom or engaging in situations that might be challenging to justify, unless it's an emergency and there's no chaperone of the same gender available. In such cases, chaperones will escort the student to the restroom but won't enter.
- Avoid where possible, entering the rooms of students who are alone.
- Must seek the permission of the lead chaperone, and provide details of their plans, if they wish to take their chaperone group outside of the set itinerary (e.g. shop to purchase snacks).

Health/wellbeing/safety

- Hold a current first aid certificate (including CPR).
- Provide a doctor's certificate stating that they are in good physical and mental health and fit for international travel in accordance with the terms of cover under the Group Medical Conditions (group policies) listed by GoSafe Travel Insurance.
- Stay near students with severe food allergies during all meals and be ready to administer first aid if necessary.

Introduction to the Project Consent Form (attached)

This letter is to inform you about how the Department of Education (department) will use, record and disclose your or your child's personal information and material. It outlines:

- what information we record; and
- where and how we will use the materials.

Examples of personal information, which may be used and disclosed (subject to consent), include part of a person's name, image/photograph, voice/video recording or year level.

Materials that are created by you or your child, whether as an individual or part of a team, may be replicated in full or modified for purpose. This includes copyright material, including written, artistic or musical works, video or sound recording created in connection with the project.

Personal information may include identifying each person who contributed to the creation. The material and personal information may also represent Indigenous knowledge or culture.

Purpose of the consent

This Project Consent Form relates to

The Global Student Programs are a Department initiative where high performing Queensland school students experience global immersion, school life, and visiting cultural and historical sites in various partner countries. Queensland teachers will accompany the successful students as a Chaperone to be part of the Global Student Programs.

It is the department's usual practice to take photographs or record images and occasionally to publish limited personal information and materials for the purpose of promoting Queensland education.

To achieve this purpose the department may use newsletters, its website, traditional media, social media or other new media as listed in the 'Media Sources' section below. The department may also use images on a range of materials including (but not limited to) advertising, marketing materials, presentations and publications.

Because of this, the Project Consent Form provides consent for personal information and a licence for materials to be published online or in other public forums.

The department holds images in its Digital Asset Management Library and these may be used by the Queensland Government to promote a range of initiatives.

The department needs to receive consent in writing before it uses or discloses an individual's personal information or materials in a public forum. The attached form is a record of the consent provided.

Voluntary

It is your choice whether to give consent.

Consent may be withdrawn

Consent may be withdrawn at any time by you.

If you wish to withdraw consent please notify the departmental contact in writing (whether by email or letter). The department will confirm the receipt of your request if you provide an address.

The department will endeavour to take down content that is in its direct control; however, published information and materials cannot be deleted and the department is under no obligation to communicate changes to consent with other entities/ third parties.

Due to the nature of the internet and social media (which distributes and copies information), it may not be possible for all copies of information (including images and materials), to be deleted or restricted from use once published.

Media sources used

The department will publish images and materials on a range of social media, websites and traditional media sources subject to your consent. Please see the following webpage for a full list of sources where the project may be published.

<https://education.qld.gov.au/parents-and-carers/parent-participation/useimages-recordings>

Duration

The consent is ongoing unless you decide to withdraw your consent.

Who to contact

If you have any questions or wish to withdraw consent please contact global.engagement@qed.qld.gov.au.

Please retain this letter for your records and return the signed consent form.
